O, God, You have asked us to pray for vocations; that there might be young men and women willing to give their lives for the sake of souls.

Hear our prayer and the prayers of your Church and send us good and holy priests and religious. We offer you this day, all we shall think, do or say for this intention, through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

PARTNERS IN THE PROMISE

As a society, during these days we can be in something of a "postpartum" depression. Our celebrations of Christmas and the New Year are over, and after today many of us will put away the decorations and the last visible remnants of the celebrations of the past weeks.

The apostle Paul today uses the expression "partners in the promise." This is an uplifting phrase for us to reflect upon, and to think of as our own calling in these days following the birth of the Lord. What is this promise? We can find it in the gifts the magi bring: it is a promise of being a royal priesthood (gold), a holy nation (frankincense), a people set apart for self-giving (myrrh).

We find more of the promise in Isaiah--a light shines upon us! In the psalm we know a promise of a world of flowering justice, profound peace, the poor rescued, pity for the lowly and the poor. This is the promise; and one of the best ways for us to lift ourselves out of any possible low spirits we may be suffering is to live out our partnership in this promise each and every day.

House Of St. Joseph the Workman Open House

Are you looking to increase your prayer life and spirituality? The House of St. Joseph is a community of Catholic professed men and women who live under a Rule to inspire a closer walk with Jesus through prayer and the sacraments.

We also have a family of Oblates, who live under their own Rule. We live a secular life in our own homes, but rely on our brothers and sisters for inspiration and encouragement. As a ministry, we operate a Catholic book and gift store. We also provide a lending library, prayer rooms, and a chapel.

Attend an information session on Saturday, January 17th from noon to 2:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Location: 319 Racetrack Rd NE, Fort Walton Beach, 850-862-4664/9039
