NEXT WEEKEND'S BULLETIN DEADLINE IS MONDAY

July 6th at 12 noon
coroffice@gmail.com

SUMMER HOURS AT THE PARISH OFFICE9:15 A.M. UNTIL 12 NOON

Mark's Gospel account today is built on a double astonishment or amazement: the neighbors and family of Jesus are astonished that he taught in the synagogue with wisdom and worked powerful signs. Jesus, in turn, is amazed that they have no faith in him because they know his origins, not because of any fault with his teaching or ministry.

As with many of Mark's passages, we get a rather intimate glimpse here of the human part of Jesus' two-fold nature. To reinforce his point, Mark tells of Jesus' return to his native place, and further points out that he is in the midst of his own family members there. From the very people he expected the most, Jesus received the least. In the day of the Gospel's writing, Mark was attempting to illustrate a lesson to the house of Israel: the God of the covenant expected the greatest faith from the house of Israel, but often received the least.

This is a good source for reflection on our part, we who are Jesus' followers today. For the wisdom of Christ to continue and for our lives to be seen as signs of his power, he must expect and be able to find great faith among us. Will he? Can he? Does he? Or is he, once again, amazed by its absence? Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

ON-LINE GIVING

Help Christ Our Redeemer "go green" economically and environmentally by using Christ Our Redeemer's on-line giving program. You can easily set up a recurring giving schedule or you can make a one-time contribution. Go to our parish website:

www.corcatholic.org ~ click on the Parish Offertory button ~ a convenient way for you to provide much needed consistency of donations for our parish. As Father Bob said at the Masses last weekend, your consistency helps pay the bills, keep the lights and the air conditioning working. Have questions, please contact Mary Beth at: 897-7797 or coraccount@gmail.com

Treasures for Our Lord ~ 28 JUNE 2015To our visitors & our members . . . thank you for your generosity

Greetings all!

Thank you so much for all the kind words, cards, and gifts that you have shared and offered over the last two weekends.

I cannot put into words just how much it has meant to serve all of you as music director at Christ Our Redeemer for the last eleven years.

I know that James is looking forward to getting to know all of you and continuing on the musical journey that we have all shared over the years.

My continued thoughts and prayers are with you and my hope is that all continue to know the joy of Christ's peace through music and ministry!

Thanks and God Bless! Adam
