Year of Mercy ~ HOLY DOORS

The following are the churches in our diocese that have been designated by Bishop Parkes to have Holy Doors. They were chosen so that no one would have more than an hour or so drive in order to make a pilgrimage to one of these churches:

- o Cathedral of the Sacred Heart – Pensacola
- o Co-Cathedral of St. Thomas More - Tallahassee
- o Basilica of St. Michael – Pensacola
- o St. Patrick – Apalachicola
- o St. Dominic – Panama City
- o St. Mary – Ft. Walton Beach
- o St. Margaret of Scotland – DeFuniak Springs
- o St. Anne – Marianna

In this Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has granted a plenary indulgence when through pilgrimage, confession of our sins, reception of the Holy Eucharist, and free from any attachment to sin, we pass through the Holy Door from sin to grace and pause to pray the profession of faith and a prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father.

A SNIPPET FROM OUR CATHOLIC HISTORY . . .

This New Year's Eve, at the turning of the year, you may catch a glimpse of the old year, a cartoon figure of a hunched old man with a sickle, Father Time. Where else but in this column could you learn that this is in fact a pope? December 31 was in the old calendar the feast of St. Sylvester. Legend says that Sylvester healed the Emperor Constantine of leprosy, and presided at the liturgy of baptism for the grateful emperor. In 314, he was chosen pope, and it fell to him to organize the peacetime church, free at last from persecution. He founded the Lateran Basilica, the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome.

In northern Europe "Sylvester Night" is a time of great parties with eating, dancing, and singing--recalling perhaps the joy of the church in the fresh air of Sylvester's papacy. In Poland, there was great fear as the year 1000 approached that an immense dragon would devour the earth and set fire to the heavens. The people prayed earnestly to St. Sylvester, trusting that the saint would not permit such suffering on his feast day. They've been celebrating ever since! Rev. James Field, Copyright (c) J. S. SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY'S THANKS TO the Youth Ministry of Christ Our Redeemer for all the bags of essentials that they prepared for our homeless. We will put these bags in our office at Holy Name of Jesus to be given to all the homeless who come to our door. Your loving care makes us very proud of you.

Have a Blessed and Merry Christmas.

THE FOOD IS PURCHASED AND THE GIFTS WRAPPED.

We want to thank you for your generous kindness to all our neighbors in need. This past week we were able to give food for Christmas Dinner to 66 families and presents to 94 children so they could have a Merry Christmas. We are so fortunate to have such loving and caring parishioners here at Christ Our Redeemer. Families who received your wonderful gifts expressed appreciation and thanks to all of you.

You make Saint Vincent de Paul the fantastic ministry it is.
May you have a Blessed and Merry Christmas.
