Ordained Deacons & Marriage

May married men be ordained deacons? Yes. The Second Vatican Council decreed that the diaconate, when it was restored as a permanent order in the hierarchy, could be opened to "mature married men, "later clarified to mean men over the age of 35. This is in keeping with the ancient tradition of the Church, in which married men were ordained into ministry. Also in keeping with ancient practice is the expectation that while a married man may be ordained, an ordained man, if his wife should die, may not marry again without special permission.

*Dear Christ Our Redeemer Family,
I am very thankful for your outpouring of faith and thoughtfulness. The Spiritual Bouquets and reception for the deacons touched my heart and soul more than I can say. Lynn and I greatly appreciate each prayer and kindness. With love we offer you the words of St. Paul, "I have never stopped thanking God for you and recommending you in my prayers." (Ephesians 1:16).
Blessings, Dcn. Miguel*

On behalf of my brother deacons, I wish to thank all who made the deacon party. It was a very inclusive affair - ministers, students, organizations - the young and the old. Beautifully done and enjoyed by all. Thanks again. Dcn. Jack

FUNERAL RECEPTIONS

COR has continuously offered Corporal Acts of Mercy by providing Funeral Receptions for parishoners.

Karla Pezdirtz has been the faithful organizer for the receptions for over nine years. As parish and as the Council of Catholic Women and we thank her for her years of service to the families at Christ Our Redeemer.

Maria Means and Chris Keating will be the new Funeral Reception Coordinators and they invite all members of our parish to volunteer to contribute to the receptions either in helping with set-up or in food preparation.

Beginning immediately, there is a change in the funeral reception menu:
CCW (Council of Catholic Woman) will provide deli trays, rolls, condiments and beverages. ALL members of the parish are welcome and we encourage you to contribute cold foods, such as, salads, fruit, vegetables, and desserts.

If you would like to participate in Funeral Receptions, and have not been receiving emails or not been called, please contact Tricia at: coroffice@gmail.com with your contact information.

When Maria and Chris receives official notification from the Parish Office that a Funeral Reception has been requested, you will be contacted by Maria or Chris.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. (Romans 6:8)
