Our History

Unless otherwise posted, the Council's General Assembly convenes on the first Thursday of each month and the Executive Committee meets on the fourth Thursday of each month. Both meetings are conducted in the Christ Our Redeemer Parish Hall at 7:00 PM.

Fourth Degree members of Council 13527 and Council 7667 comprise Assembly 3236. The Fourth Degree Assembly convenes on the third Thursday of each month, alternating meeting locations between Christ our Redeemer Parish (even months) and Holy Name of Jesus Parish (odd months).

In June 2004, the Knights of Columbus conferred the Charter establishing Council 13527 at Christ Our Redeemer Parish. On July 1, 2004, our first Grand Knight, Len Casey, convened the Council's inaugural meeting and fraternal year. The Council earned the Star Award that year and Double Star Awards each of the next five years. In 2007-2008, under the leadership of Past Grand Knight, Jack Starr, 13527 earned the Best Florida Council (Division II) distinction. In 2009, Sir Knight Dave Halupowski was honored as the State of Florida Knight of the Year.

From the Grand Knight's Desk

My Brothers All,

November has been a busy month. There was the Remembrance Mass, Belk Charity Day Sale, Military Honors Mass, the Baby Bottle Drive, and Keep Christ in Christmas card sales. Lastly there was Thanksgiving – a time to be grateful for all our blessings and gather with family and good friends.

December continues in the spirit of thanks and giving. There is the Niceville Christmas parade, Council Christmas party, Sunland Christmas party, and finally the birth of our Lord on Christmas Day. These activities will provide opportunities to show our best through giving and service to the Council, Church, and Community.

Merry Christmas and many Blessings to you and yours,

Greg Muntzner

Knight of the Month

Tom Kessinger.

Tom has really stepped up since he joined the Council from the Tampa area. He volunteered to become Deputy Grand Knight. He also recently organized and ran the successful Baby Bottle campaign.

Way to go Tom!

Family of the Month

Larry and Betsy Blameuser.

Larry is a very active Knight. He has served as Lecturer and more importantly, he is head of Niceville Catholic Outreach, (formerly St Vincent de Paul). To that end he conducted the recent Thanksgiving food drive gathering much needed food and other items for less fortunate community members. Betsy does a great job supporting Larry and is very active in the Choir where you can hear her beautiful voice.

We are blessed and very proud to have Larry and Betsy in our circle of friends.

What Happens If You Live?

The Security of Long-Term Care Insurance

We're living a lot longer than our ancestors, but living longer can also mean added responsibilities and concerns, such as: what happens if we live?

Insurance is all about "what ifs" – What if we die? What if we get in an accident? What if we get sick? But how much have you thought about what happens if you live?

That's where long-term care insurance comes into play. I know you think you won't need long-term care, but the statistics tell a different story. 70 percent of individuals over the age of 65 will need some type of long-term care services during their lifetime.

Paying out-of-pocket for long-term care is neither brief nor cheap. The average duration of long-term care needed per individual is three years, at an annual cost of $83,000 for private nursing home care and $60,000 for at-home nursing care.*

Traditional and government medical insurance programs don't usually provide enough help, either. According to the Department of Health and Human Services, Medicare only pays for long-term care services for a maximum of 100 days, and that's only if you meet certain criteria. Medicaid does pay for long-term care, but only if your income is below a certain level and you meet state requirements. As for employer-sponsored or private health insurance plans, they typically cover a limited range of services, similar to that provided by Medicare.

So if we do need long-term care, many of us are left drawing from our own resources to cover the costs – and it often happens right when we need our resources most at retirement.

That's why long-term care insurance should be considered part of an overall sound insurance protection strategy, and that's why the Knights of Columbus is proud to offer long-term care insurance to our members and their eligible family members.

There are many other factors and considerations that go into the crafting of a Knights of Columbus long-term care policy. I can help explain your options.

Contact me today to help ensure that your family and your assets are protected from the unexpected and substantial cost of long-term care.

Saint of the Month – December 2016

St. Sabas, (439-532)

Feast Day: December 5th.

Born in Cappadocia, Sabas is one of the most highly regarded patriarchs among the monks of Palestine, and is considered one of the founders of Eastern monasticism.

After an unhappy childhood in which he was abused and ran away several times, Sabas finally sought refuge in a monastery. While family members tried to persuade him to return home, the young boy felt drawn to monastic life. Although the youngest monk in the house, he excelled in virtue.

At age 18 he traveled to Jerusalem, seeking to learn more about living in solitude. Soon he asked to be accepted as a disciple of a well-known local solitary, though initially he was regarded as too young to live completely as a hermit. Initially, Sabas lived in a monastery, where he worked during the day and spent much of the night in prayer. At the age of 30 he was given permission to spend five days each week in a nearby remote cave, engaging in prayer and manual labor in the form of weaving baskets. Following the death of his mentor, Saint Euthymius, Sabas moved farther into the desert near Jericho. There he lived for several years in a cave near the brook Cedron. A rope was his means of access. Wild herbs among the rocks were his food. Occasionally men brought him other food and items, while he had to go a distance for his water.

Some of these men came to him desiring to join him in his solitude. At first he refused. But not long after relenting, his followers swelled to more than 150, all of them living in individual huts grouped around a church, called a laura.

The bishop persuaded a reluctant Sabas, then in his early 50s, to prepare for the priesthood so that he could better serve his monastic community in leadership. While functioning as abbot among a large community of monks, he felt ever called to live the life of a hermit. Throughout each year—consistently in Lent—he left his monks for long periods of time, often to their distress. A group of 60 men left the monastery, settling at a nearby ruined facility. When Sabas learned of the difficulties they were facing, he generously gave them supplies and assisted in the repair of their church.

Over the years Sabas traveled throughout Palestine, preaching the true faith and successfully bringing back many to the Church. At the age of 91, in response to a plea from the Patriarch of Jerusalem, Sabas undertook a journey to Constantinople in conjunction with the Samaritan revolt and its violent repression. He fell ill and soon after his return, died at the monastery at Mar Saba. Today the monastery is still inhabited by monks of the Eastern Orthodox Church, and Saint Sabas is regarded as one of the most noteworthy figures of early monasticism.

Reflection

Few of us share Sabas' yearning for a cave in the desert, but most of us sometimes resent the demands others place on our time. Sabas understands that. When at last he gained the solitude for which he yearned, a community immediately began to gather around him and he was forced into a leadership role. He stands as a model of patient generosity for anyone whose time and energy are required by others—that is, for all of us.
